AS SEB Pank and AS SEB Liising (hereinafter SEB) analyse the information submitted in the application and along with it to evaluate your creditworthiness, suitability of collaterals, and SEB's readiness to conclude a loan agreement with you.

SEB may collect additional information to evaluate the application and prepare the leasing agreement, including making inquiries to the credit register.

Giving SEB permission to request the information below from the Tax and Customs Board will enable us to process your application and make a credit decision more quickly. We will make an inquiry about the 12 months preceding the date of consent. The Tax and Customs Board shall provide the following information to SEB:

- declared income (except income from the transfer of property);
- wages and other payments by employers (based on TSD);
- incapacity for work, unemployment insurance, and redundancy benefits, pensions, contributions to the 3rd pension pillar, payments from the funded pension (based on TSD);
- entries in the employment register (information on the employer and the employment relationship);
- dividends and equity payments;
- tax arrears starting from 100 euros.

SEB will use the data obtained for the purpose of assessing creditworthiness. SEB has the right to make inquiries to the Tax and Customs Board only during the processing of a credit application. You may withdraw your consent at any time by notifying SEB thereof.

The terms and conditions of the Tax and Customs Board for data processing are available on the website of the Tax and Customs Board. If you have any questions about taxation data, please contact the Tax and Customs Board by phone at 880 0811.

Please inform SEB immediately of all changes in the data provided in the application that occur before concluding the leasing agreement. SEB may reject the application or refuse to conclude an agreement if it becomes clear that the information submitted in the application are not correct.

SEB may communicate the information submitted on the application and with the application, including the information of the agreement to be concluded, also to third persons (e.g. the applicant's spouse, security provider, seller of leasing object) to verify the information submitted on the applications, evaluating creditworthiness and preparing the loan agreement and related agreements. Personal data is processed at SEB pursuant to Procedure for processing client data at SEB Eesti companies.

By submitting the application, you agree to the application of SEB's terms and conditions for processing client data to the legal relationship between you and SEB.

SEB's conditions for processing client data have been published on SEB's website and are available at the bank's offices.
