

Trading restrictions on certain Chinese Securities

We do not execute securities transaction orders to purchase, or to otherwise transfer to a securities account opened with SEB to invest directly (through securities and derivatives) or indirectly (through investment funds) in companies in the People's Republic of China supporting Chinese People's Liberation Army.

Clients who already hold such securities or whose securities in the future cannot be held through SEB due to decrease of security value or change of trading venue or other above-mentioned characteristic, may be contacted by us to request to sell the securities or transfer to another service provider.

If the client has not submitted a respective instruction to sell or transfer the mentioned securities by the term specified, we may, according to AS SEB Pank Terms and Conditions of Securities Account and Transactions, sell at the customer's expense the respective securities corresponding to the above conditions at the best possible price reasonably obtainable at that moment for the respective securities according to the best of our understanding and after deduction of the cost for such sale, transfer the sales proceeds to the client's current account or register said securities in the securities register in the name of the client or to deposit the securities with a notary.

The restriction is set by AS SEB Pank according to the Terms and Conditions of Securities Account and Transactions subdivision on the basis of the Scope of the provision of services.
